Elizabeth Koch AM

Elizabeth Koch AM is Associate Professor at the elder Conservatorium of Music, University of Adelaide. Her former career was as a flautist in the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra before joining the teaching staff at the University of Adelaide in 2002. Elizabeth has an outstanding reputation as a teacher in Australia with many of her former students now in professional orchestral and teaching positions. She has directed two Australian Flute Festivals and led several study tours to London, Paris, Basel and Lyon with her advanced students. Her passion is teaching and mentoring students, giving them international experiences and helping them to develop their careers.

Session 1 A Sound Approach to Teaching Repertoire

Through examples of AMEB repertoire we will enlarge our resources of exercises and ideas, to help your students become more confident with their sound production.

Session 2 Supercharging Your Repertoire Teaching

Using 'Supercharge your Flute Technique' by Peter Bartels and other books to provide a solid foundation for the technical aspects of AMEB repertoire.

Session 3 Bringing it All Together

Applying the ideas of Session 1 and Session 2 to workshop AMEB repertoire of any level and add your own ideas.

Bring your FLUTE and lunch. (Tea and coffee provided) - Cost: $80.00
